

Welcome to Franc and Lisa

We've all seen the cartoons of a man with a long beard wearing a long robe carrying a sign on which are those words, and we are surprised to find almost a personal meaning in them at this time. We have so enjoyed our life during these last ten years at Parc Verger that it seems unbelievable that we could leave here, yet all good things must come to an end sometime.

Through the good offices of ARVM we have had the opportunity of sharing with you some of our experiences and pleasures over these years, as well as some of the joys of living in this beautiful part of France. The house we are buying locally has two sets of double gates, one leading to the garage and one that leads to the side of the house, ideal for a motorhome, if not an RV. So after a settling-in period we will look at our options for getting back on the road – there is so much of France that we have still to explore, let alone being ideally situated for a foray into Spain and Portugal.

As we said in last month's issue, the new owners Franc and Lisa are RVers and looking forward to meeting our ARVM friends, some of whom they will already know of course. They have some really good ideas about developments, which we are sure that those who know Parc Verger will enjoy. As for those who have still to experience this unique site – what are you waiting for?!!!

What do those who have visited the site have to say about it? Look at our visitors page on the Parc Verger website www.parcverger.com. Or just look at

Double gates, ready for our future motorhome or whatever

THE END IS NIGH FOR US

BOB and DI BANKS -Parc Verger

Two of our current visitors (1/6/15)

Two more of our current visitors (1/6/15)

some of those on site now. Pitch 1 – the fifth visit for this RV; Pitch 2 – this RV came last year for two months and have already doubled that this year. Pitch 6 – here for their fourth summer; Pitch 8 – came last year, arrived back at the end of May for over three months this year. Those are just some of the folk on site now. We can look after outfits when owners drive or fly back to the UK (the airport is only 31km from here, just half an hour's drive)

So it's goodbye from us and hello from them. Thank you from us to Paul and Jeni – if they had not published that letter asking why there was no decent site for RVs en route to and from Spain we would have missed out on a lot of fun and pleasure, not to say a lot of friends. Thanks too for all who have visited over these years – we have enjoyed your company, please keep coming. Finally thanks to Franc and Lisa, to whom we pass Parc Verger with the wish that they will enjoy every moment as much as we have.