EDITORIAL

THE OUTDOOR MOTORHOME SHOWS SEASON IS ENDED - THE INDOOR SEASON STARTS

It was lovely to hear our resident Robin, earlier this week singing away, perched at the top of one of the apple trees. It's another sign that Autumn is truly here!! The tractors have been chugging up and down the fields, followed by attendant flocks of seagulls, hoping that a few juicy morsels will be turned over by the plough.

The days of sunshine have meant the grass has had another cut, hopefully the last, the last eating apples have been picked and shared out among friends and family, and the Lovely big Bramleys are being picked daily, dried, wrapped in newspaper and stored, no more room in the freezer!!

We are looking forward to visiting the NEC on Saturday, doubly so, as, besides visiting the Show, it will be our first opportunity to see the newly nearly completed Birmingham New Street Station. It really does look amazing from the photos.

We have had a spate of orders going out to France and Spain recently conveying one thing or another that had been forgotten when packing up for the winter in the sun! Our latest came in the morning from Crete, we await with interest to see how long that takes to arrive.

Half - Term looms in our area next week and I guess a large number of children will be kept busy carving out Pumpkins in readiness for All Hallows Eve. The Market was inundated with them today and I noticed a number of supermarkets were offering 2 for 1 deals. Has the Pumpkin harvest, like the wheat harvest been a record one I wonder?

Travelworld have their Autumn Open Day at the end of the month, I'm sure it will be very well attended as usual. Then all is quiet on the Show and Rally scene until next Spring.

So, we wish you all safe Autumnal travelling, enjoy, All Hallows, Bonfire Night, and any other celebrations you may have in the near future.
